An easy walk of four miles. Very flat. No stiles. Some mud.

The Rookery Tavern is not easy to find. I took the A533 north-west from Sandbach and turned left into Station Road at traffic lights. Follow this across a roundabout into Elton Road. The pub is in the right. Based on a walk led by Geoff Bradshaw last year. Anti-clockwise. South-east on the Trent and Mersey canal then north-west on the Wheelock Rail Trail. Muddy on the towpath but clean elsewhere. The Rookery Tavern has recently re-opened and offers real ales and real chips, both sampled and enjoyed by me the previous week.
