A little over 4 miles. Two easy hills. Good footpaths. A little mud but not much. No stiles. Lots of horses.

The Furlong serves very good food and beer. They are, however, wary about walking parties. Some have ordered food in advance but left after the walk, leaving the pub with uneaten food that has not been paid for. Some have eaten but not paid. I have told them that Biddulph Ramblers are above such things.
